Trivia about Augsburg

Augsburg is located in the southwest of Bavaria. It is about 60km to Munich. Augsburg has approximately 284,000 inhabitants and is the third largest city in Bavaria. The largest city in Bavaria is Munich and the second largest city Nuremberg. A Roman emperor named Augustus founded Augsburg more than 2000 years ago, between the rivers Lech and Wertach. Augsburg even has its own holiday - on 8 August, the city celebrates the Augsburger Hohe Friedensfest. The festival symbolises religious freedom and peace between religions. In Augsburg there are many interesting and beautiful places. But especially beautiful and famous are the city hall with its Golden Hall, the Fuggerei, which is the oldest social housing complex in the world, and Augsburg Cathedral. Do you like football? Augsburg's football team, FC Augsburg, offers you 90 minutes of excitement. Since 2011, FC Augsburg has played in the top division of the Bundesliga and, since 2015-16, in the Europa League.
